HIGH HOPES!

Our stewardship drive is making great progress. We have reached $127,618 of our $170,000 goal. We look forward to having the remaining $42,382 by the end of the stewardship campaign on April 12. If you haven't pledged yet, every dollar counts. Each pledge, no matter how great or small contributes to our collective goal...making our UUSO a real and supportive presence to our members, community, and the world. We move onward with High Hopes in fulfilling our campaign goal. Thank you for your support!

MINISTER'S MUSINGS

Faith Exploration at UUSO

Last month, I invited members of the UUSO community to gather and discuss how we might improve how we do adult religious education or adult programming. Between the two meetings, about a dozen people met in person to explore the topic. Several other people couldn't attend the meetings, but shared their thoughts via email and phone calls. These are the main ideas, as I understand them, that came out of those conversations:

- We would like there to be more opportunities for learning and faith exploration.
- The Building Your Own Theology curriculum was quite popular.
(Though it is difficult to schedule due to it requiring 10-12 weeks.)
- Involvement of the minister in these programs is not required, but desired.
- There is considerable interest in exploring end-of-life issues.
- It was everyone's hope/desire that a program of some sort be offered soon.

Based on these ideas and others shared, I have a few ideas for how we might expand our Faith Exploration here at UUSO. (I'm calling it Faith Exploration, because it is more descriptive of the purpose and less restrictive than Adult Programming.)

What Do You Believe? – Diana Friedell suggested this idea to fill the void left by the end of our Spiritual Vespers. Once a month, we will invite someone to come and facilitate a presentation/conversation about their particular religious and/or spiritual beliefs. We hope this will help us to better know our neighbors, build connections beyond UUSO, and inspire and assist us in the formation of our own beliefs.

Worship Forum – Once a month, I plan to facilitate a discussion of the worship topic after the service. I'm hoping to start this conversation in the loft or in the front of the sanctuary 30 minutes after the worship service ends. People are encouraged to bring food or a bag lunch. My intent is to give us an opportunity to go deeper with some of these topics and to promote faithful conversations.

Quarterly Offerings – Once a quarter, on the same schedule as our worship calendar, I am hoping to offer a program of some sort. Depending on the topic or curriculum, these programs might be facilitated or co-facilitated by members of the congregation. We have a large number of programs to choose from. Our UUA's Tapestry of Faith collection has dozens of programs of varying lengths on many topics. There are also many books and workshops offered through Beacon Press.

While I am already offering, with the Membership Committee, the Getting to Know UU classes this quarter, I am also tentatively scheduling a three-part workshop on “Ending Well” for May 5, May 12, and May 19. The full details of this three-part workshop have yet to be determined. (There is no published UU curriculum on death and dying—something we might want to rectify.) My hope is to provide information on the legal aspects, the basics of hospice, and the religious issues related to the end of life.

Faith Exploration Committee

While it is important and desirable that I, as the minister, be involved in these programs as much as possible—I know that I will not be able to organize and facilitate these offerings by myself. I am going to need help. I would like to form a Faith Exploration Committee, patterned after the Worship

UUSO Newsletter—April 1, 2015

Committee. Everyone on the Worship Committee is directly involved in some aspect of worship here at UUSO. The committee, as a whole, meets quarterly to review the last quarter and plan out the next quarter. I foresee the Faith Exploration Committee working in a similar fashion—with each person on the committee responsible for coordination of one piece of the Faith Formation program every quarter. If you are interested in being a part of this new endeavor—this experiential learning (like an experiment, but with no negative outcome, since the goal is to learn something)—then please let me know.

—Cooperatively, Rev. Craig

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

The Explorers class of preK through third graders recently visited their "Special Place" in the backyard of the Olympia Brown House. They have been doing this off and on since their class began in the fall. They are exploring the interdependent web of life and their "Special Spot" is a place to pay close attention to all of the many changes that occur through the seasons to their very own piece of earth. They are happy to report to you all that last Sunday they noticed signs of spring. There was a brighter quality to the sunlight, the snow was beginning to recede and if they listened very carefully, they heard running water.

This bodes well for our upcoming Easter/Spring Celebration on April 5. We will all begin in the sanctuary until after Time for All Ages and then go to the Olympia Brown House for the annual Can Hunt. If we are able to be in the backyard (not too much snow, water, or mud), there will be deviously hidden cans of food to find. All will be collected and packaged for donation to one of the local food pantries. If need be, we will conduct our hunt inside the Olympia Brown House. There will also be spring treats for all participants! We are still in need of non-perishable food donations to hunt. These can be left in the entryway of Chapin Memorial Church or in the office entryway at the Olympia Brown House at least 15 minutes before the service on Sunday, April 5. Thank you for helping with this project!

Another spring activity that has been mentioned in previous newsletters is information about planting milkweed and other butterfly host and nectar seeds for our gardens. This is to support the dwindling monarch butterfly population in our area. If you are interested in more information about these plantings as well as the plight of the monarch butterfly, you can now find flyers and brochures in the RE brochure holder at the bottom of the stairs at Chapin Memorial. If you are interested in taking it a step further, there is also information about how to get your garden certified as a "Monarch Waystation."

Here's to water, mud, seedlings, and future butterflies! —Susan Ryder, UUSO Dir. Religious Ed

PUBLICITY ASSISTANT

Do you need assistance drafting a press release or even just deciding how an event or issue needs to be publicized? Contact Kay Stuligross at 432-6974 or stuligrossk@gmail. I'll help you write a press release or edit what you have written. We will talk about how widely you need something publicized: to the UU community, to area churches, to the Greater Oneonta and Cooperstown areas, or to all of Delaware and Otsego County. We will also discuss the appropriate vehicle for your information: UUSO services, newspapers, radio, online.

Together we'll decide where each release should go and what each should include. We need to work together as soon as an event is planned for the release to reach the public at the most effective time. Of course, Robin will continue to be an integral part of this process.

Sawdust from the Board

At the Board's March meeting, we heard the regular reports from the Treasurer, Director of Religious Education, and Minister. The Board accepted reports from the Nominating Committee and the Bylaws Committee. The slate of officers and Bylaws changes were accepted by the Board, and will be voted on by the membership at the May 10 Annual Meeting. A mailing with the agenda; slate of nominees for Trustee, Moderator, Endowment Committee, Nominating Committee; and details of proposed Bylaws changes will be sent to Society members shortly.

Kathy Paranya, Chair of the Website Committee, reported extensively on the recent congregational survey and gave the committee's recommendations for the Board to consider. We will take this up at the April 15 Board meeting.

We heard from the Office Committee that we will be needing a new copier in the not-too-distant future.

Many thanks to Cynthia Squires, who kindly agreed to act as Recording Secretary for this meeting in Robin's absence.

The March Sounding Board was well attended, and items brought up were addressed as appropriate. Come visit with Trustees at the next Sounding Board, held each month during the Social Hour on the Sunday before Board meeting. As always, members are welcome to observe at Board meetings, which are held at 6:30 pm in Chapin Memorial on the third Wednesday of each month (except July).

APRIL CHANGE FOR CHANGE

Our Change for Change for the month of April will go to GOFAR (Greater Oneonta Fund for Animal Responsibility), a nonprofit organization established in Oneonta in 1991 to help with the cost of spaying and neutering stray cats and local pets for people who couldn't afford it on their own. GOFAR currently conducts a monthly spay/neuter clinic for cats, and also sponsors a voucher program to offset the cost of spaying and neutering both cats and dogs at participating area veterinarians. GOFAR exists on volunteer help and professional vet services and also seeks donation of some clinic supplies. GOFAR's goals include educating all pet owners about the benefits to them and to society of spaying and neutering pets, and encouraging responsible pet ownership. Priority for services is given to low-income households, disabled individuals, elderly residents, farmers, and individuals caring for stray or feral cats. See www.gofar.org or call 436-9546 for further information, clinic dates, and needed supplies.

UUSO ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE HIGHLIGHTS

The UUSO Endowment Committee plans to write each month a very short newsletter article highlighting some aspect of its mission, goals, fundraising efforts, investments or distributions.

So, this first information clip will simply present the Fund's mission statement written in 1997: The mission of the UUSO, Inc's Endowment Fund is to raise, invest, manage, and disburse gifts to fund both activities in the Society that are not normally part of the operating budget and activities in the community that are consistent with the principles of Unitarian Universalism.

If you have any questions about the Endowment Fund, email them to me, and our committee will do its best to answer them. The Fund exists because of your ongoing generosity. Thank you.
