MINISTER'S MUSINGS

Our New Sign

Our new marquee sign has arrived and has been successfully installed! After the Sunday service on October 23, before the congregational meeting, we gathered outside to bless and celebrate the new sign. Many thanks are due to the properties committee for all their work in getting the sign installed (especially Tom O'Brien for supervising the contractors over several days), to Chava for her vision and continued work with the sign, to Trustee John Bagby for shepherding the project from beginning to end, and to everyone who made financial contributions to make this happen. The new sign is well-lit and easy to see from the road-- and it looks FABULOUS!

We have kept the top glass portion of the old sign for historical purposes. The letters from the old sign have been donated to an artist in the congregation for creative repurposing. The sign board will be recycled as part of the ongoing space clean up program. (As part of the sign installation, the properties committee also installed motion activated lights for the walkway ramp. Already much appreciated with the shorter days.) This sign will help let people know who we are and what topics we are engaging with weekly. It is one more way we can extend a warm, well-lit invitation to folks to join us.

Our Website & Social Media

A couple of years ago, we unveiled the new UUSO website. The committee, led by Kathy Paranya, continues to work to improve the look and the user-friendliness of the site. Our Office Administrator, Evelyn, has been working hard to keep the site updated while also creating new ways for us to connect with each other and those beyond our walls. UUSO has an active presence on Facebook and is also on Twitter. People can visit our website to learn about who we are, peruse our schedule of events on the calendar, donate and pledge money to our shared ministries, and (soon) pose a question to the minister. Members can also find policies, Board minutes, and directory information on the site-- and sign up for social hour hosting and ushering. If you haven't checked out the website lately (and often), I encourage you to do so.

Thanksgiving Interfaith Service

UUSO will be hosting this year's Interfaith Thanksgiving Service on Tuesday, November 22nd at 7:30. I'll be participating as the host minister and Michael Frye-Hunt will be providing music for the service. Ric Chrislip will once again be directing a multi-church choir (if interested in being a part of that choir, let me know.) Patricia Engel LaFata will be coordinating the reception after the service (contact her to volunteer or provide food or drinks.) This service is always interesting, sometimes deeply moving, and always educational and inspiring. I hope we will have a good number of people attending to represent UUSO and show how welcoming and accepting we are of our neighboring faiths.

*Cooperatively,
Rev. Craig*

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

It was exciting to welcome and bless our new marquee in the front of our church. The Hogwarts class of 4-5th graders was especially glad they had finished their wands in time for the blessing.

The Explorers class of K-3rd graders has been adding new creations to their classroom. This will continue until a sparkling biblical-based environment is complete at the end of the year. They have a life sized "burning bush", a tent for all wanderers, and are putting the finishing touches on an "Ark of the Covenant" that they will be able to carry with shoulder poles. There are many jewels and sparkles.

The YRUU room continues to become more beautiful as redecoration goes forward. They expect to be finished soon. They will have many ways to use their new space. One plan in the works is to invite the YRUU from Ithaca to an overnight celebration sometime in the coming weeks.

The Star Wars and the Hogwarts rooms began the year already transformed into their respective worlds. The previous Hogwarts class had (unbeknownst to me) hidden their room in plain sight with a spell. I was grateful they recorded the spell for bringing the room back into view in the list of helpful tips they left for this year's class. Feel free to check out these or any of the classrooms in our program. They are indeed sites to behold!

There are many important things going on in RE on November 6th. There will be a Day of the Dead RE Worship Celebration led by me at the Olympia Brown House beginning at 10:30. It is based on Hispanic traditions of Día de Los Muertos. This year it will include K-5th grades. This is a popular celebration in RE where we celebrate those who were important to us who have died. We have celebrated people, pets, and even bugs. Participants can bring a photo or memento of who they want to celebrate but it is also fine just to bring a memory. It isn't meant to be scary like Halloween but to create happy memories. We make colorful decorations and enjoy making sugar skulls.

At the same time as this RE Worship Ceremony, many of those in our congregation who work with children will be participating in a teacher workshop led by Sallie Han. It will also begin at 10:30 and will meet in the Explorer's classroom downstairs at Chapin. This is a mandatory training as it covers safe congregation policies and procedures as given to us by our insurance company. It is also a wonderful time to talk with other teachers who share in this amazing journey of working with our children and youth.

Finally, Rev. Craig has invited the Youth Group to meet with him after church on Nov. 6th in their room. He will bring lunch! They will get this chance to talk together to provide feedback as well as learn to be facilitators of Appreciative Inquiry groups. The plan is for them to hone these skills by helping to facilitate the children's classes on Sunday, Nov 13th. All will be able to give voice to their dreams, visions, and hopes for our church.

We are so busy and it is exciting to see our Religious Education Year off to a great start.

UUSO Director of Religious Education

SAWDUST FROM THE BOARD

During our October 19 Board of Trustees meeting, we voted in Paul Carter as the new Clerk. We planned a Board retreat for January 14, 2017, discussed the upcoming Assessment of the Ministry, revised the building use policy adding some kitchen use procedures, and approved an updated key policy. We discussed the transition of the Mali Task Force to a permanent status.

A significant report was presented by the Board's appointed "Space Study Subcommittee". Donna Behrendt, Duncan Smith, Sandy Smith, and Grace Smith have provided a comprehensive analysis of the way we are currently using our space in both of our buildings. It is clear as illustrated by a dramatic slide show that we have some cluttered, unwelcoming areas that don't present us in the best light to newcomers and visitors. Our UUSO Mission is obscured by disorganized and potentially unsafe rooms, nooks, closets and sheds. We understand that our buildings are like a second home for our congregants but because they are public spaces, we can't afford the informality we may have in our own mud rooms, cellars, and attics. As Rev. Craig pointed out during his sermon, we need to treat each other and all newcomers and visitors as "honored guests". In other words, we need to tidy up quite a bit! The space study subcommittee will be working diplomatically with all who have investment in each of our spaces and we are asking for understanding, flexibility, and the gift of "letting go". Let's consider this a spiritual journey together. If there are significant issues, please bring them to the Board and be gentle with the subcommittee folks. They'll be putting in a lot of hard working hours to accomplish our UUSO "makeover".

Our next Board meeting is Wednesday, November 16, 6:30pm in the Sanctuary. Members and friends of UUSO are invited to observe. Board members are always happy to listen to your concerns or suggestions and a Trustee and member of the Committee on Ministry will be present at the "Sounding Board" table after the service on November 13th.

UUSO NEWS / ANNOUNCEMENTS

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service to be hosted by UUSO

The Oneonta Interfaith Thanksgiving service will be held at UUSO on the evening of Tuesday November 22. If you would be able to help with providing food for the reception that follows please send me an email with what you will bring. (lunagaggia@gmail.com)

Suggestions include desserts, cheese and crackers, fruit and dip, vegetables and dip, cider. Let's show our community what kind of cooks we are! I would need food to arrive by 6:30pm the day of the event.

As always, my thanks. It is great to be a part of this caring community.

-Patricia Engel LaFata

Backpack Buddies and RE

Suzanne Miller and Dawn Kilts met with RE classes on October 16 to explore the Backpack Buddies and Personal Care Program we support. They discussed hunger in the community and the impact it has on children. The group watched a video of a home with limited food available and read a book on a soup kitchen. The children engaged actively with excellent questions and examples. The group suggested ways the children can collect for the program such as getting donations instead of gifts, collecting pennies for a penny tape, having a food drive, and reminding their parents to bring donations. Then the older children brightly decorated new donation boxes and the younger group decorated poster with lists of sample donations for the collection.

Let's Make America... Full of Cookies and Crafts Again

Exciting things are happening on Saturday, December 3rd. The 29th Annual Cookie and Crafts event takes place from 10 until 3---a festive tradition and terrific fundraiser for the UU. You'll see many tried and true vendors as well as a new crafter or two, gourmet items hand-made by our talented congregation and, of course, Pam's fruit cakes (pre-order to guarantee yourself this treat). A cozy lunch of Pam's corn chowder, Martha's blueberry muffins and Molly's cheese biscuits will also be for sale in our café.

29TH ANNUAL COOKIES & CRAFTS

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3RD 10AM-3PM

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST
SOCIETY OF ONEONTA
12 FORD AVE.

SOON we will ask you to bake your favorite delicious and BEAUTIFUL cookies (just add colorful sprinkles, really!) and to volunteer for a shift on that day (we'll make sure you have time to shop too). Your baking and volunteering makes this event one of the best fundraisers of the year and has for the past 28 (!!!) years.

Mmmmm, I can already taste the ... (your favorite here). Whether it's the mint brownies, baklava, snowballs, etc. that make your mouth water, they'll be there. Looking forward to seeing you there!

- Liz Jacob-Carter for the C & C committee

Workshop on Drone Warfare

A workshop on stopping drone warfare was held on Saturday, Oct. 1st and 16 people participated. Ed Kinane and Mary Ann Grady Flores, members of the Upstate Coalition to Stop the Drones and End the Wars, each gave presentations followed by Elliott Adams who gave pointers on how to interact with people who have a very different perspective on the drone and war issues than we do. Following a brainstorming session on actions that could be taken, several small groups were formed to implement the plans. Eleven workshop participants participated in a demonstration against drones in front of Muller Plaza in Oneonta and Elliot put his words into action when confronted by several who called out to kill the Iraqis. In the end they were on our side!!

Assessment of our Ministries

Every member and friend of UUSO is invited to participate in a new process that the Board and the Committee on Ministry are initiating this Fall to assess our UUSO Ministries. We are using an approach known as Appreciative Inquiry (AI) to guide us. In the words of its founder, David Cooperrider, "AI begins by identifying what is positive and connecting to it in ways that heighten energy and vision for change".

You are critical this process and we ask that you set aside an hour after the Sunday service (noon to 1pm) on either November 6 or 13. Simply sign up to be in a small group that will be facilitated by two people who will be members of the Board and/or COM.

We will be asking these four questions:

1. What brought you to UUSO?
2. What do you value most about our congregation?
3. What are the most valuable ways you contribute to our congregation?
4. What 3 courageous dreams do you have for our congregation?

We will be asking participants to agree to the following covenant during the groups.

- Actively listen to one another
- Create a safe space for authentic expression
- Practice the art of asking and answering unconditional positive questions that strengthen our community
- Be open to unlimited possibilities
- Be willing to step up and step back so that all voices can be heard

Results of each group's discussion will be summarized and shared with the congregation. The culmination of input will provide valuable insights for the Board and COM to use as we move forward toward realizing our Mission and Vision. Sign ups will be held after each Sunday service through the end of October. Child care will be provided for each session.

Thanksgiving Dinner at UUSO

The annual UUSO gala Thanksgiving dinner will once again be held on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 24. Leah Bridgers and Julian Pecenco will once again be coordinating the event. This annual tradition is a wonderful way to spend the Thanksgiving holiday. You'll get a sumptuous meal without having to cook it all yourself, and you'll get to spend the afternoon in the company of UUSO family and friends.

We'll gather in the sanctuary at Chapin Memorial at 2 p.m., starting with appetizers and beverages, followed by a full sit-down dinner buffet at 3 pm. Feel free to invite your friends, neighbors, and relatives. All who wish to attend are welcome at the feast.

We need all parts of the meal, from beverages and appetizers to desserts. Bring a family favorite, or try something new. (If at all possible, try making your dish gluten free, vegetarian, vegan, and/or nut free, so that guests of all dietary needs will be able to enjoy the bounty.) We're also looking several people able to cook turkey(s) for the dinner.

The sign-up sheet for attendance at the dinner will be on the bulletin board in the Sanctuary following the service on Sunday, October 30. Sign up as early as possible so we can plan for enough tables, chairs, and food. We'll need people to help with set-up (at 12:15 p.m.) and as many as possible to stay after the meal to help with cleanup.

If you'd like to sign up via e-mail (jp.pecenco@gmail.com), please provide the following information:

Name(s)

Number of People Attending

Any dietary restrictions

Your contribution(s) to the meal

If you are able to help with either set-up and/or clean-up.

If you have any questions or you would like to volunteer to help, please contact Julian (jp.pecenco@gmail.com) or Leah (LCbridgers@gmail.com).

NEW POLICIES

These policies were recently passed by the Board of Trustees. They meet each third Wednesday at 6:30 PM, visitors are welcome to observe. Childcare is provided for those who request it, 48 hours in advance.

Key Use Policy October 19, 2016

The UUSO buildings should be secure for its members, friends, staff and renters to use. The church Office Administrator will keep a logbook of signatures of key holders as determined below. Church keys are the property of the Unitarian Universalist Society of Oneonta and are for the sole use of the person the key has been issued to. Keys may be assigned to people for long or short-term use as follows:

- All church staff. This includes but is not limited to Minister, Office Administrator, Director(s) of Religious Education, Music Director and Custodian;
- Current Board members and officers;
- Committee chairs of recognized church committees and members of these committees approved by the committee chair;
- Renters of church space on a temporary basis, with a deposit of $50 that will be refunded upon return of the key;
- Members of the church not belonging to one of the above categories with an appropriate need of a key during non-business hours.

A master key is available to open all exterior doors. This master key will be given only to church staff, Board members and Properties Committee members.

Each person requesting and given a key will be asked to sign a logbook and will receive a copy of the Building Use Policy. Failure to follow Building Use Policy appropriately may result in key privileges being revoked.

All church keys are assigned to individuals. The person applying for the key is responsible for the assigned key and is the only authorized user.

If a key is lost, the holder of that key must pay a $10 fee to the church to replace the lost key. There is to be no duplication of keys by any key holder other than the church staff.

Each year the church Office Administrator will send a letter to all outgoing Board members, Treasurer, and committee chairs requesting the return of their church key (s). All keys must be returned upon request of the Office Administrator.

Replaces "Key Use Policy" of March 2010

NEW POLICIES

Building Use and Rental Policy

October 19, 2016

Added:

15. For either kitchen:

- a. Kitchen use is limited to staff, church events or building renters.
- b. Leave no open food in the kitchen.
- c. Our kitchens are not approved for food preparation for public consumption.
- d. Food will not be stored longer than 24 hours in advance of event, except for those items used for weekly services or RE events. (e.g. sugar, tea, coffee.)

The UUSO Office will be closed for the following dates in November:

- 11/8, Election Day
- 11/11, Veteran's Day
- 11/22-25th, for the Thanksgiving Holiday

The deadline for submissions for the November 23rd newsletter will be the Monday of the week prior, 11/14.

ANTI-RACISM TASK FORCE

The Anti-Racism Task Force is pleased to announce the following events planned for the next few months. We hope that you will find something that appeals to you and will help you grow in your understanding of and commitment to becoming an anti-racist congregation. Check the UUSO website for more info and updated events.

Many thanks to the active, regular members of the ARTF, who have been working and meeting regularly to plan, especially Alice Siegfried, Cindy Squires, Grace Smith, Duncan Smith, Donna Behrendt, Zanna McKay, Karen Palmer, Patricia LaFata. Submitted by Susan Turell.

If you are attending and need childcare, please let the facilitator of the event know as least one week prior.

November

- Nov 20, noon: Food for thought, topic “White privilege and me”, facilitated by Duncan Smith. Bring your stories about the ways you have, or have not, experienced White privilege.

December

- Dec 4: Food for thought, an Appreciative Inquiry about the Anti-Racism ministry, Rev. Craig "What have we done well? What do we want our Anti-Racist Congregation to look like in 5 years?"

January

- Sunday, January 8th Noon: Whistling Vivaldi book group discussion facilitated by Donna Behrendt.

- Sunday, January 22th, noon: facilitated by Alice Siegfried and Zanna McKay

“A Class Divided.” the classic film of the 1970 third grade class divided by eye color to provide an exercise to show what discrimination feels like and what it can do to people. Fourteen years later a mini-reunion of that class is also filmed by Frontline. Discussion to follow.

January through May: we are planning monthly Food for Thoughts discussions, some videos/movies, and other events. In February, we are planning some candlelight dinners to watch and discuss a video produced by Monet’s daughter. Let us know ideas you have that will help all of us grow in our understanding and commitment.
