

UUSO Website Privacy Policy

This policy governs the use of any personal information of members, friends and visitors by the Unitarian Universalist Society of Oneonta on its UUSO.org website.

What personal information is collected and used:

This website gathers information about our members and friends and others who visit the website. Any personal contact information, which you provide on a voluntary basis, may include your postal and email addresses. All the information you provide will be used only by UUSO. We will not sell, lease, or distribute any information to a business or an outside organization for commercial or fund-raising purposes.

You may visit the public section of this website without submitting any personal identifying information. You may voluntarily submit email addresses or other personal identifying information if you wish to take part in activities via the website or to view password secured website areas.

Important: Where necessary, the names of members and friends may be mentioned on the website and in event promotional materials, particularly in articles in the newsletter. Only first names will be used to identify children. Other examples may include the names and contact information of Board members, staff members, committee chairs, discussion and worship service leaders and associates or participants. The personal identification/contact information, such as phone number, address, or email addresses, will not be included with these names without permission.

How we use photographs:

Photographs of church activities, both within the church property and in public spaces, will be posted on our website and used occasionally for promotional materials/purposes. Personal identification information such as names will not be associated with any photograph unless identification is warranted and permission of the individual or parent of the person photographed has been obtained. A form to give consent/permission to post personal images is downloadable on our website.

If we have posted your image in error without your permission, please either contact us with a request to remove it from the website, or sign the permission form and email or post it to UUSO.

We use Google Analytics to track website use:

Our website software automatically gathers information from your browser and may set a cookie to determine number of visitors, trends in peak activity, the frequency that individual pages are accessed, and to ensure our website is working properly. Each website visitor's domain name is automatically recognized by our website hosting service, IP (Internet Protocol) address, and browser software. This service may also recognize the operating system and the site from which the visitor linked to us. It does not harvest email addresses or other personal information. This tracking information is not shared with other organizations.

We do not employ spyware or adware of any kind on our site. If you experience any concerns regarding tracking or spyware, please contact us immediately by email: UUSO@uuso.org or by phone at 607-432-3491

Hyperlinks

The hyperlinks to outside parties provided on our website, such as those to Unitarian Universalist resources, are for your convenience only and do not imply any endorsement of the material or content by UUSO.
