"Getting Engaged"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Our sanctuary offers a refuge from the world,

We are called to engage the world.

Come on! Let's get engaged!

April 12

"The World Wide Web"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Children to Classrooms at 10:30

The Unitarian Universalist Service
Committee has declared this to be Climate Justice month.

Where do we fit in our world wide web,
the web of all existence and creation?

March 29

"Treasures in Heaven"

Karl Seeley

Children to Classrooms at 10:30

Many Americans worry they'll be less prosperous than their parents, which is not the traditional American expectation.

What has changed? What does it mean?

April 19

"Our Commandments"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Start Together, Bring-A-Friend Sunday

Christianity and Judaism have the Ten Commandments.

What about Unitarian Universalism?

What might our commandments be?

April 5

"The Price of Redemption"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Easter Service, Start Together

In the Christian story of Easter,
Jesus gives his life to redeem all of our sins.

Believers or not,
there IS a price for redemption.

April 26

"How Coyote Lost His Songs..."

Susan Ryder, DRE & the UUSO Children

Stay Together

The UUSO children present this intergenerational worship service about acceptance of each other's differences and a celebration of community.

"The Meaning of Ministry"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Children to Classrooms at 10:30

Ours is a shared ministry.

But what exactly is this

"ministry" thing anyway?

More important,
what is OUR shared ministry?

May 24

"The Gospel of Mary"

Charles King

Children to Classrooms at 10:30

Mathew, Mark, Luke, and John

aren't the only gospels;

just the ones accepted into the canon.

What if we look at the early

Jesus movement

from a woman's perspective?

May 10

"Life After Birth?"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Mother's Day, Start Together

Some people debate about when life begins.

Others wonder about life after death.

This Mother's Day,
let's consider life after birth...

in the world.
