

Unitarian Universalist Society of Oneonta

Spring 2018 Worship Schedule

Regular Sunday Services start at 10:30am

April 8

"#NewWorld"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Children to Classrooms at 10:30

Twitter has changed the way we organize and respond. #MeToo, #NeverAgain, and #AllWomen created vast movements, greater awareness, action. How do we live our faith in the #NewWorld?

April 22

"An Improbable Spiritual Journey"

Ginny Scheer

Children to Classrooms at 10:30

UUSO Member, Ginny Scheer, will share the evolution of her mother's belief system. "Ginny," she would say, "It's just science."

May 6

"Where We Meet"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg, Yolanda Bush,
& Michael and Dorothy Frye-Hunt

Children to Classrooms at 10:30
Congregational Meeting at Noon

There is a place, a crossroads of joy & sorrow,
hopes & fears, humanity & the world;
a worshipful, musical intersection, where we meet.

May 20

"We Believe"

Coast Youth, Mentors, and Susan Ryder, D.R.E.

Stay Together Sunday

The Coming of Age Spiritual Trek challenges our youth to find and articulate their beliefs. Come, honor their work and be inspired in your trek.

June 3

"Within The Seeds"

Flower Communion

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg
Stay Together Sunday

Emerson said, "The creation of a thousand forests is in one acorn." What lies within the seeds of flowers? Or in the seeds of our faith we plant every day? Please bring a flower to contribute to our ritual.

April 15

"Cooking, Conviving, and Communing"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Start Together Sunday

Everyone knows that breaking bread is a spiritual practice; but, so is baking the bread in the first place. Come, let's geek out over the making of communal meals.

April 29

"Life is Teaching and Learning"

Susan Ryder, Director of Religious Education and Religious Education Volunteers & Students

RE Teacher Appreciation

Graduating Seniors Bridging

Stay Together Sunday

Teaching and learning are central to life and to our faith. Join us in thanking our UUSO teachers and volunteers and honoring our graduating seniors.

May 13

"Mothers of Our Faith"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg

Stay Together Sunday

This Mothers' Day, let's celebrate some of the founding women of our Unitarian Universalist faith.

May 27

"Who Do We Think We Are?"

Nettie Jean Scarzafava

Children to Classrooms at 10:30

Referencing the work of David Bohm and others, Nettie Jean will explore a comparison between scientific knowledge and religious belief.

June 10

"A Faithful Conversation: Our 'isms'"

Rev. Craig Schwalenberg & Rev. Kimberly Debus
Religious Education Fun Day

In a faith tradition that encourages individuals to find their own beliefs, sharing those beliefs with others is an important part of discernment, refinement, and evangelism. Join Rev. Craig and Rev. Kimberly for a faithful conversation about their beliefs about the Divine.

June 17
“Fathers of Our Faith”
Rev. Craig Schwalenberg
Children to Classrooms at 10:30

This Fathers' Day, let's celebrate some of the lesser known founding men of our Unitarian Universalist faith.

June 24
“In Summer, the Song Sings Itself”
Pam Strother and UUSO Poets
No Religious Education Classes

So says the poet William Carlos Williams.
What song do you want summer to sing to you this year? Write a poem, in any form, or bring one by your favorite poet, about the season.

Start Together Sunday: Children from Kindergarten through 6th grade start out at 10:30AM in the sanctuary with their families until after Time for All Ages.
Stay Together Sunday: Children stay with their families for the entire service.
